- On the first Saturday of October, the statewide green energy tour is organizing open houses and tours of green buildings in nine different cities. After a 9 a.m. tour of the Adam Joseph Lewis Center, the day will continue with tours of the LEED Gold Certified Oberlin Fire Department and a number of local green or positive energy residences. Register and see the full schedule online. Saturday, Oct. 4 starting at 9 a.m.
- This year's annual banquet hosted by the Filipinx American Students Association will feature a panel discussion by Filipina women and mothers focusing on diasporic motherhood, Filipina American women's experiences in academia and the workforce, and Filipinx culture and tradition in the context of the U.S. A full banquet of traditional food is open to all based on a sliding scale donation. Saturday, Oct. 4 from 5–8 p.m.
- In honor of the well-known traditional German festival, the German department is sponsoring a free celebration featuring traditional food, non-alcoholic beer and Bavarian and Brazilian music in the German House lounge. Saturday, Oct. 4 from 8–11 p.m.
- This energetic ensemble of flute, guitar and piano, named after its highly acclaimed flautist and accompanied by dancers, will bring a night of Argentinian tango to northeast Ohio. The group will stay on to teach a tango lesson followed by two hours of dancing on Monday night from 9:45–11:45 in Clonick Hall. Sunday, Oct. 5 at 7:30 p.m.
- Although January can feel like a lifetime away, this presentation will provide an overview of the most important guidelines for a successful Winter Term project. Faculty and returning students will be on hand to share their experiences and help workshop ideas. Monday, Oct. 6 at 7 p.m.
- American playwright Amy Herzog's dramatic comedy involves the unlikely companionship between the 21-year-old Leo and his spirited grandmother as they make their way through today's world. This student-directed production runs for three consecutive nights in the intimate space of the Little Theater. Thursday, Oct. 9, Friday, Oct. 10 and Saturday, Oct. 11 at 8 p.m.
- The third annual Lab Crawl returns this week for an interactive open house showcasing faculty research labs across the STEM disciplines. Participants earn stickers for visiting campus labs from the Science Center to the Adam Joseph Lewis Center, which they can redeem for pizza and a raffle at the end of the Crawl. The event is open to all students interested in learning more about research taking place at Oberlin. Friday, Oct. 10 from 11:30 a.m.–1:30 p.m.
